

It is unbelievable that the 3 D.C. area airports are still closed to transient general aviation traffic.
Lets use some common sense & reopen these airports immediately. The government has caused enough economic damage to innocent business owners and others who would use these fields in the norman course of business/travel